

Customized Reports

In much the same way that conferencing needs vary from one meeting to the next, the reporting and billing requirements differ from one customer to another.

The ConferencePlus™ flexible billing platform enables reports to be designed to provide information in the way that is most meaningful for your business needs.

For business customers, ConferencePlus can provide reporting on a geographic basis, organizational basis, or nearly any combination that benefits your company. If you are a Private Label customer, you have the ability to receive data in the format that best enables rebilling of customers, the creation of marketing programs or helps to analyze your business trends. Additionally, ConferencePlus can provide both the wholesale and end user billing function allowing you to focus your resources on your core business.

Below is an example of a standard “Time and Charges” report. This information can be customized to suit your needs and is accessible 24x7 via your personalized “MyAccount Dashboard.”

features

- + Get daily billing information – if your business is driven by hourly fees and related expenses, you can keep your billing current by getting access to conferencing time and charges every day
- + Track charges by department, client or line of business – segment your usage reports to map to your corporate structure
- + Get sales leads and participant information – we can provide a detailed list of conference attendees, how long each person stayed on the call, along with detailed contact information
